An Affray at Niagora Falls.

Persons from Niagara Falls inform us that on Friday night and Saturday last there was quite an affray between some of the guests at the International Hotel, and the colored waiters employed there. Mr. James Gorden Bennett's son was in a rudin at the hotel, with a number of friends—The bell was rung for some wine, and a colored waiter responded. The man gave Mr. Bennett off use, and he ordered him down stains. The waiter did not go as directed, but ended some of his friends to his assistance, and a regular set to was lad. Mr. Il. went on his muscle, and knocked down one of the waiters several times. The proprietor here interfered and Persons from Niagara Falls inform us had. Mr. H. went on his muscle, and knocked down one of the wasters sevenal lines. The proprietor here interfered and the disturbance was quelled. During the night Mr. Bennett, in company with a friend, went over to the Canada side of the river, being followed by five or six negres, who were intent upon chastising the "white tolks." The guests stoyed in Canada as long as they wished, and then recrossed the suspension bridge. Just as they stepped from the structure the negroes assailed them. Bennett and his friend defended themselves manfolly, and two or three of the "darks" kissed the earth. One of them somehow got behind Mr. B. and leveled him with a stone, which was thrown agnitus his back. The darkies had knives in their hands, which they flourished with impunity. The white men, by the assistance of friends, got home to the hotel without sustaining any serious injury.—Rochester Union, 27th.

THE PRINTER.—Mr. Punch gives the following description of what a printer

"How nice is this being a printer! A public servant, and withal a servant of the devil. A good-natured fallow, must be killing politic on all occasions, especially to ladies—must always be a dear duck of a man, always witty, and always dignified; he must nover do anything that would not necord with the strictest propriety of the most precise old maid, and must always be expected to know the latest news, is styled "musgins" if he is not always pested; must please everythely, and is supposed never to need the one thing needful; must work for nothing and board himself; must trust everyhody, and is thought a great bore if he presents his bill; must be a indder for all political aspirants to step into effice, who soon become independent, don't owe him anything, consider the printer at best a sorry cog who cannot expect any better treatment than kicks and onlie; and finally, summing it up he is expected to be a man without a model and without a shadow. "How nice is this being a printer! A

DEATH OF A VETERAN PRINTER.—Mr. Wm. Greenough, one of the oldest printers in that part of the country, died at his reaidence in Boston on Monday, at the age of SS years and seven monits. The deceased was born in Wellillet, Barnstaple County, Mass., January 6th, 1772. He came to Boston in 1780, and in 1784 was placed as an apprentice in the office of Samuel Hall, a noted printer and newspacer publisher of Established 1778.)

A fortuging since, there was a very remarkable scene in a creek close by the sea at Duxbury, Mass., between Plymouth and Marshfield. A small sail boat in coming up the creek from the ocean came upon a drove of porpoises. Other basta joined the first, and drove the sea-monstera in the creek into water no shallow, that they could not a silly make their escape. Some of the party in the boats began to shoot the porpoiers. Others with guns from the shore immediately joined them, and sone there was general slaughters. and soon there was a general slaughter with guns and knives. The battle raged some time, when the entire drove, 75 porpoises, old and young, was killed. The largest porpoise weighed 800 pounds.

Robbery of Majame Anna Bishop. On Friday night, between seven and eight c'clock, Madame Anna Bishop's at the Newhall, was entered while the lady was at the concert, and a large amount of jewelry taken from her trunk. The loss is about $800, though to the owner the property is worth incalculably more, the articles being souvenirs received in different parts of the world from admirers and friends. A Bic Fran .- Saturday morning. as the sloop Willard, Capt. Carr, was coming in past Point Judith, with a light wind, a sunfish was seen a short distance from the yessel. There was an old whaler on hourd and a harpnon; the boat was manned, and in a few minutes the harpoon was sent spinning through the fish, which was hauled on buard and brought into this port. It weighed about 200 lbs. The oil from the liver of these fish is valuable for medicinal purposes, also lubricating watches.

MR. DOWNING MAKES HIS RETIRING BOW AS AN AGITATOR .- Mr. George T. Downlag, the famous colored restaurateur, of Newport, &c -- famous as well for his politic-social endeavors, as for the excellence of his oysters and other choice comestibles has wisely concluded to confine himself to the cuisine and cash, by giving up the speech and sensation branch of his business. White this step will promote his individual interest," the view which he takes of the matter as it affects the subject of " caste." does credit to his esgecity. He now believes that the elevation of the colored race de-I ends on their success in showing themselves worthy individual members of societr. In a letter declining, for business reasons, to attend a celebration of "Emancipation Day," he says:

"Further, I find the interest manifested on the part of our people in solid matters tending to secure the means of influence in tending to secure the means of innuance in the community so limited, that I do not feel called upon to make the sacrifices I would have to make in being any longer engaged in public matters. I feel that I am working for the people with whom I am identified in oppression, in securing a business wame; I shall strive for my and their elevation, but it will be by a strict

Some years ago, a letter directed to "Zrumfeidavi," was received at the London Post Office. Unable to find such a person, it was referred to the savans, who found out at last that it was intended for Sir Humphrey Davy, the great chemist.

A drover named Lathrop, or Latham from Hannibal, Mo., with a drove of cattle for New York, was knocked down and killed by the cars on the Rochester track, near Ningara Falls, on the evening of the 27th inst. The cattle are at Suspension Bridge, awaiting orders.

A hoy about 14 years of age, named Loop, a grandson of Luther Crowell, committed suicide recently at Podunk, near Syrscuse, by banging himself. He had remarked to his sister during the evening that he intended to hang himself, but she did not pay much attention to his remark. No cause is assigned for this singular suicide. The probability is that the boy was only in fun, but his sport accidentally became a sad reality.

EYES AND EYELIUS.

A true specific, and invaluable remedy has been at last discovered. Dr. Humphreys argues that these affections invariably result from a constitutional disease, of which the local affection is unly the outward manifestation. Hence, HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC OPHTHALMIA PHILL are only taken internally, and yet cure the worst forms of obstinate sore eyes and eyelids, which have resisted all other treatment. All cases of sore and inflamed eyes and eyelids, which have resisted all other treatment. All cases of sore and inflamed eyes and eyelids, or failing, weak or, defective sight, will be promptly benefited, and the cure of the worst cases is only a question of time.
